Life at Ray Village

Set within an established over-65s community, Ray Village offers relaxed independent living in a beachside setting, with support nearby should you ever need it.

Capecare has been supporting older West Australians for 65 years, delivering services grounded in respect, compassion and partnership.

Here, you can enjoy:

- A sought-after coastal location
- Landscaped village surrounds
- A welcoming community atmosphere
- Optional in-home support services

Independent living with confidence.
Coastal comfort, beautifully renewed.
